Greet your partner. 1a	Greet your partner. 1B
Do you feel like going to the mall? 2a	Sure! I want to buy new clothes for the winter. 2B
Me too. I am going to go to Chile next week. It's summer there. 3a	Oh. You're right. The seasons are different Do you need shorts? We can buy them today. 3B
Right now I'm cold, so I don't feel like buying shorts. Aren't you cold? 4a	Yes. It's cold, so I'm cold, too. I am going to buy a yellow jacket at the mall. 4b
Ok. We can eat lunch at the plaza. They serve good food there. 5a	Are you sure? I need to see the menu. 5B
They have several good restaurants. I am going to order rice with chicken. 6a	I never order rice because I don't like (it). I prefer vegetables. 6B
There aren't good vegetables in January. The Spring (March, April, and May) and Summer (June, July, and August) are better seasons for vegetables. 7a	But in the Fall (September, October, and November) and in the Winter (December, January, and February) I like to eat steak. 7B
After the mall we can see a movie at the theater. 8a	Ok. Or we can walk at the park, if you prefer. 8b
